SECTION 1: INSTITUTIONAL PROFILE

Welcome to PTS

PASS Theological Seminary (PTS) stands as a foundational beacon of faithful, rigorous biblical education[cite: 1]. Established to serve the global church, PTS focuses on building an environment where sharp academic research intersects deeply with practical, vibrant spiritual formation[cite: 1]. Our ultimate goal is to shape reforming minds and hearts prepared to handle the complex ministerial landscapes of the contemporary era[cite: 1].

Vision Statement

To be an exceptional theological institution globally recognized for fostering deep biblical scholarship, authentic spiritual transformation, and bold missionary zeal within our student community[cite: 1].

Mission Statement

To train, educate, and equip generations of faithful pastors, teachers, missionaries, and market ministers through an uncompromisingly biblical curriculum and focused mentorship structures[cite: 1].

CORE INSTITUTIONAL PILLARS

Sound Doctrine

An unwavering commitment to the ultimate authority of Scripture, historical orthodoxy, and sound expositional theology[cite: 1].

Academic Excellence

High-caliber foundational tracks taught by seasoned faculty members who demand deep analytical thinking[cite: 1].

Spiritual Formation

A community anchored in persistent prayer, structured character mentorship, and active student fellowship[cite: 1].

Practical Ministry

Bridging classroom knowledge with local church fieldwork, homiletics labs, and cross-cultural outreach strategies[cite: 1].

SECTION 2: GENERAL ADMISSIONS CRITERIA

Candidacy Prerequisites

Applicants seeking admission into the academic programs of PASS Theological Seminary must provide evidence of the following prior to formal matriculation[cite: 1]:

- Spiritual Calling: A clear, demonstrable personal testimony of Christian faith and an active sense of calling toward institutional church ministry, missionary execution, or lay leadership[cite: 1].
- Ecclesiastical Endorsement: A formal letter of recommendation from the candidate's local church pastor validating their Christian character, spiritual maturity, and capacity for community service[cite: 1].
- Academic Background: Verification of certified educational documents from matching qualifying boards depending on the targeted program level[cite: 1].

SECTION 3: COMPREHENSIVE COURSE PROFILES

PROGRAM 1: BACHELOR OF THEOLOGY (B.Th.)

Level: Undergraduate Degree Program Duration: 3 Academic Years Instructional Mode: Full-Time Residential / Blended

The Bachelor of Theology (B.Th.) is engineered to provide an extensive, well-rounded undergraduate foundation in biblical analysis, historical doctrine, and practical leadership strategies[cite: 1]. It is specifically curated for individuals preparing for ordained pastoral ministry, missions, or entry-level theological research[cite: 1].
